Why Money Power Day for Youth?

The Baltimore CASH Campaign (Creating Assets, Savings and Hope) presents Money Power Day 2011, a free financial fitness fair. Now in its 6th year, it has evolved as an event with a fun, family atmosphere which attracts many people who want to learn about a variety of financial education topics and who want to foster positive money management habits in their children.

Opportunities for youth of all ages to learn about finances and money:

- Power Buck Game (14 and under): Answer financial trivia questions, receive Power Bucks, and use the Power Bucks to purchase items in the Power Buck Store
- Family Feud: Come play the financial version of Family Feud and win prizes!
- NFTE Marketplace: Visit the marketplace and meet some of Baltimore's finest young entrepreneurs
- Gaming Stations: Play a variety of entertaining online financial education video games
- Photo Booth: Smile...Money-Style! Dress up in fun money gear and get your own photo strip!
- Craft Area: Create your own piggy bank, have your face painted, and more!
