MONEY POWER DAY 2011

Poly-Western High School • Saturday April 2, 2011 • 9:00am – 3:00pm
1400 W. Cold Spring Lane, Baltimore, MD 21209

The Baltimore CASH Campaign presents Money Power Day 2011, a free financial fitness fair. This is an energy-packed day filled with exciting activities designed to inspire and inform people of all ages and income levels on how to be financially secure!

- Workshops – Topics will include: buying a home, starting or expanding a small business, improving credit and basic investing. Brought to you by MECU.
- Credit Café – Pull your free credit report, receive one-on-one credit counseling, and get credit and financial information. Brought to you by M&T Bank.
- Housing Counseling & Foreclosure Prevention Clinic – On-site housing counseling and free foreclosure legal consultations available. Please call the Pro Bono Resource Center of MD at 1-800-396-1274 to pre-register for the legal consult.
- Benefits Zone – Get screened for public benefits to see if you and your family qualify for additional financial resources.
- Youth Zone – Fun, financially-focused activities for youth of all ages, including The Power Buck Game, and more. Brought to you by SECU.
- Free Tax Preparation Services – IRS-certified volunteers will help families of two or more earning $49,000 or less (or single tax filers earning $25,000 or less) receive all the tax credits they deserve. Brought to you by Bank of America.
- Exhibitor Hall – Over forty-five nonprofits, businesses and government organizations will provide financial services, information, and education.
- Additional Services - Document shredding, medical screening, FAFSA assistance and more.
